

Long Hair and Bridal Styling

This course is aimed for the stylist who needs confidence boosting in longhair and up style training.

Susan Hunter Academy provides workshops where each stylist will benefit from one to one training; this course is intended to encourage rapid learning and improve stylist confidence.

Each workshop provides step by step demonstration and tuition by Susan an expert in long hair styling for many years. Susan covers the basics of working with long hair and demonstrates a selection of styles from soft and romantic to classic and elegant, teaching several on each day.

After completing the workshop students will feel more capable, confident and inspired; ready and eager to apply their new skills and techniques.

This also will benefit the salon where this service can be offered to clients and in turn will improve profits.

In salon workshops include tuition for up to three students, additional students are charged extra.

Workshops can be arrange any day to suit the client (such as when the salon is closed).

Sunday workshops by arrangement, if required.

Certificate on completion

Workshop details

Foundation workshop

In salon £285 up to thee students (additional student £50 each)

Out of salon (Private Academy) £100 - per student (maximum of 2 per session)

Intermediate Workshop

In salon £300 - up to three students (additional student £50 each)

Out of salon (Private Academy) £120 - per student (maximum of 2 per session)

Advanced workshop

In salon £400 - up to three students (additional student £50 each)

Out of salon (Private Academy) £150 - per student (maximum of 2 per session)

One-to-One tuition

In salon Price on application

Out of salon (Private Academy) Price on application

Lunch, tea & coffee included at the Academy workshops

Further details on request.